Catalog Description

This course provides a critical, hands-on introduction to the design, implementation, and management of multi-user web based content management systems(WCMS). This course examines the use of WCMS within the context of businesses, non-profit organizations, news, and social media websites. Students gain hands on experience with a modern CMS and learn to apply the systems development life cycle to the creation of company intranets, corporate websites, social media, and news websites. Students are introduced to the concepts of top-down and bottom up design, security, performance, web analytics, content strategy, and end-user support.

Prerequisites: None

Learning Outcomes

Project Rubric

You are expected to complete milestones for your project. Each project is expected to have a project template and a mockup of the ui and/or flow chart for the application.

- 3 – Above Average Performance – Thoughtful Visual Design and/or Technically Advanced
- 2 – Average Performance – Demonstrates all major project requirements
- 1 – Below Average Performance – Submitted with obvious technical and/or visual deficiencies

Homework Rubric

1 - Completed on time

0 - Not Completed on Time

Late Project and Homework Policy

All projects and homework must be turned in on time, or you will lose one point for each week that project or homework is late. Note: A homework that is 1 week late loses all points.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken for each class meeting. You are permitted one unexcused absence for the class; however, each subsequent absence will result in a 3 percent reduction in your final grade. Attendance is worth 10% of your final grade.

Academic Integrity Policy

My expectation is that each person will complete original work for this course and will not copy from fellow students or tutorials online. It is OK to refer to tutorials online; however, you will be considered in violation of the NJIT honor code by submitting work found online. Any violations of the honor code will be referred to the Dean of Students for investigation and possible disciplinary action.

For more information about the NJIT honor code, you should refer to this document:
